

EVANGELICAL URBAN TRAINING PROJECT

is non-denominational and specialises in helping Christians relate the Gospel to people of average or below average literacy - people who 'can read but don't'.

New Project Officer Jim Hart is well in post now. Jim has run 25 'Workshops' in all parts of Urban Britain.

Seven 'D.I.Y.' courses are available, and more are in preparation. They are being used quite widely.

BELOW: A PARTY OF WALKERS RESTING NEAR THE THAMES BARRIER

The 1985 London Walk was attended by more than 500 people who raised £7,800 for the work of E.U.T.P.

"We were able to see and feel for ourselves something of the enormous contrasts between the 'best-off' and the 'worst-off' parts of London." wrote Mary Coombs of St. Andrew's Church, Sidcup.

"All of the walkers were moved by the caring attitudes of the people we visited." wrote a group from St. John's Beckenham.

St. Luke's, Bricklet Wood

Their parish magazine said of the Christians they met - "They need to be cared for and loved by other parts of the Body of Christ. We also reap a benefit. By giving ourselves we have learned much and been greatly blessed."

THE TOWER HAMLETS

These fourteen East London hamlets - Wapping, Shadwell, Stepney, Poplar, etc. - sent their men to defend the Tower whenever danger threatened - instead of the regular militia. This old name was revived for the new London Borough. The classic home of the Cockneys - and host to waves of incomers - Huguenots, Jews, Chinese and more recently Bangladeshis and others. By 1900 there were 600,000 inhabitants, but today only 150,000 people remain and there is more open space. Many great Christian works began here including the Salvation Army and Dr. Barnardos.

COME AND SEE THIS FASCINATING DISTRICT FOR YOURSELF!

THE TOWER HAMLETS

WALKS WHICH TOUCH HEARTS

In our first two walks more than 900 people from the London region saw the 'Inner City' for themselves and shared in the work of Christians there. The money they raised helped E.U.T.P. in its important work of training urban Christians in sharing the Good News with their neighbours. I hope that we shall welcome friends from previous walks and meet many new ones in the Tower Hamlets.
