(i) Housing association - good new housing for people who can't afford much. Unlike very expensive housing in Docklands development (around Greenland Dock) which is private & expensive.

(j) Avonport Tower (see picture over) looks OK -

but is shoddy & ill-planned. Home to "problem families & many refugees. See also (n)

(k) These beautiful houses were stock houses in the old Deptford dock.

- (k) These beautiful houses were stock houses in the old Deptford dock.
- (l) Stairs where Raleigh spread his cloak for Elizabeth I and site of original "Gitty Sank". Remains have been found. (The one in Greenwich is of course only a replica.) In the same area (see Q29)
- (m) Lewisiam - Greenwich borough boundary. See view of Greenwich.
- (n) Steps between two blocks of flats. very poorly planned inside - like living in a prison, with (necessary) series of locked doors to corridors
- (o) School where children of refugees & others speak a total of 38 languages
- (p) Parker house, where your map-maker works in office of "Lewisham Refugee Network" - an advice agency for refugees in Lewisham borough.
- (q) Site of Oliver Goldsmith's house. (Goldsmith's Rd). He was a teacher here.
- (r) Meeting house lane. Puritans met here from about 1615. Later they built a Hanover Chapel (corner Rye Lane/Peckham High St). Now a shop.
- (s) High walkways on North Peckham Estate are all being closed off as encouraging mugging etc. That is why we can't walk through them to see the estate. (see picture over) This estate is one of the most multi-ethnic in London.
- (t) St Lukes Centre runs English language classes, nursery etc.
- (u) Old Kent Road - the stage coach route to Dover, Peckham & Bromley over the fields
