

It's in the Bag

1. Sit in a circle.
2. The person with the bags takes one object out of it.
3. They briefly tell of something from their own experience, that they are reminded of by the object they have pulled out of the bag.
4. They try to think of a Bible passage that connects with the story they have told.
5. If they can't think of anything the rest of the group can help with suggestions.
6. Discuss whether the Bible story throws any light on the story told by the person with the bag.
7. The bag is passed to the next person and steps 1-7 are repeated.
